

Announce Your Tribute to Rachel Carson with a Legacy Paver

Rachel Carson inspired the environmental movement with her landmark book Silent Spring in 1962. Today, her message is as timely as ever, and more urgent!

Rachel Carson's birthplace and early home in Western Pennsylvania is on the U.S. National Register of Historic Sites. It is maintained to educate the public about her life and legacy,

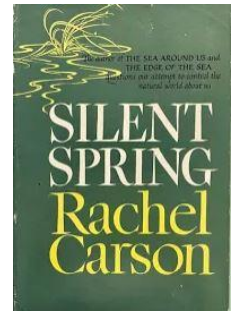

A new sign has been installed, and landscaped with a brick-paved area. You are invited to contribute and include your message on a legacy paver. Order soon* to include your engraved paver.

You can select to include your name, honor someone else, an organization, a special date, or other message.

The order form will guide you through the format, and present you with a visual representation of your paver. All imprints are subject to approval.

ORDER HERE –<https://ezengraver.com/RCHA-pavers/order>

You will pay the engraver directly! Paver shades are random within the Belden Brick CityLine "Admiral Red" series.

For more information, go to RachelCarsonHomestead.org > Your Tribute – Help Pave the Way!

Aim camera to order now

Aim camera here for RCH website

*Note: Orders are accepted and processed on a rolling basis, in groups of 30 or more. We will announce cut-off well before the effort ends.

THANK YOU for your support.

The site and some of the pavers already installed (with snow)!

The official registration and financial information of Rachel Carson Homestead Association, Inc. may be obtained from the Pennsylvania Department of State by calling toll free, within Pennsylvania, 1 (800) 732-0999. Registration does not imply endorsement.